

.. unwind and renew your spirit ..

Tijara Beach is a luxury hideaway situated a short distance south of Mombasa Island in Pungu - Kenya. A place away from the stresses and strains of daily life, where you dictate the pace and the mood.

Only four individually situated cottages nestle in colourful gardens on a seaside bluff overlooking the Indian Ocean. Under the thatched roofs of each cottage, ceiling fans quietly cool the airy, spacious bedrooms. Both the room and the luxurious bathroom open up to a large hardwood deck. At the foot of the cliffs on which the resort perches is its own secluded beach.

Beautifully appointed facilities with exclusively handcrafted Swahili furniture reflect the warmth and character of the local architecture. A magnificent fresh water outdoor pool is situated at the heart of the complex offering a great way to refresh or you can simply laze on your sun-bed reading your book while sipping on a cocktail prepared specifically to your taste.

The retreat's main dining area offers an al fresco setting with a comfortable chill out area to relax in after meals; alternatively dine privately on your own veranda or romantically on the cliff above the beach. Freshly-caught fish as well as fresh produce form the basis of Tijara's delicious dining options.

Recreational activities include snorkeling along the reef, bird watching or beach and cave walks. Plus, for keen golfers, Tijara Beach is close to any of the three Mombasa courses. Adventure seekers can enjoy a range of exciting tours like visits to the Shimba Hills National Park or to Mombasa Old Town and deep sea fishing or diving can also be arranged.

This sea front retreat provides an upmarket service whose intimate and personal side gives everyone the feeling of being at home.
